

Family Child Care at Its Best

A Series of Early Care and Education Classes

Sponsored by the Center for Excellence in Child Development, UC Davis
Funded by the Child Development Division of the California Department of Education

▪ ECE: Loss, Trauma and Young Children

Saturday, February 5, 2011
9:00am-2:30pm

This course addresses the emotional impact of loss and trauma on young children. In addition to concrete information for increasing the physical safety of children in family child care, the course explores the provider's role in helping children cope with stressful events, such as divorce, separation and changing caregivers.

Topics include

- behavioral indicators of trauma
- the link between attachment and loss
- strategies to help children cope with grief and loss
- prevention of injuries

This series of classes emphasizes the needs of children from birth to age five. The series aims to enhance the quality and safety of family child care environments. Each class makes practical use of the most recent research in child development and early childhood education.

To register for these FREE workshops or for more information, call:
Changing Tides Family Services
at (707) 444-8293.

Workshop Location

Humboldt County Office of Education
901 Myrtle Avenue
Eureka, CA 95501

If you need directions, please ask when you call to register.

Academic Credit

This series of classes is offered for academic credit. To receive a passing grade for a class, participants will attend the entire class and complete assignments in class. Participants will receive 0.5 quarter system unit for each 5-hour class completed and 1.0 quarter system unit for each 10-hour class completed.

About the Center for Excellence in Child Development

The UC Davis Center for Excellence in Child Development engages in learning partnerships to improve the lives of young children. The Center is dedicated to quality care and education, and seeks to translate theory and research into developmentally appropriate practice. Training and technical assistance are available for all levels of organizations. For more information visit our website at <http://humanservices.ucdavis.edu/childdev>